Volume 12

Dedication

Mrs. Varner, Mrs. Longenecker, Mr. Kiefman, Mr. Lehmier

We, the Senior Class of 1964, dedicate this yearbook to the sponsors of the Senior Class. In our final, but most important and enjoyable year, we have received the help of our sponsors in the yearbook, Washington Trip, and any other problems. Therefore we thank the sponsors through this dedication.

We, the Lion Staff, have tried to picture our life at C.R.H.S. from March 1963 to March 1964. In this book we have covered the academic life as well as the social and extra curricular life of our school. We hope you, the reader, as much enjoyment looking at the book as we had preparing it and that the book, in the future years, will make you recall happenings of this year.

Washington Trip

At 7:15 a.m., on November 4, three blue and white buses pulled up to the school and by 7:30, Mrs. Longenecker, Mrs. Varner, Mr. Kiefman, and Mr. Lehmier had all 89 of us aboard. With much jubilation and great expectations we started out.

The Washington National Cathedral, our first stop, left us awed by its vastness and the money and time needed to complete it. We then had lunch at the National Zoological Park, and while all the animals were interesting, the monkeys intrigued us most.

The National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception was toured in the afternoon. Before we went to dinner at Sholl's New Cafeteria, we were shown to our rooms at the Burlington Hotel.

The lighted city and shrines were lovely at night, and we enjoyed the Wax Museum. Then we visited the Lincoln Museum and watched with great interest the activity of the Washington International Airport. Back at the Burlington even an hour of dancing didn't quench our spirits; and in different shifts, a few boys and five girls had to spend time in the comfortable hotel lobby.

The ringing of the telephone awoke us Tuesday morning. We started touring again and our first stops were the Lincoln Memorial and the Jefferson Memorial. The fact that it was raining didn't dampen our spirits—just us. Before going to Arlington, where we saw the solemn changing of the guard at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, we stopped at the U.S. Marine Corps War Memorial.

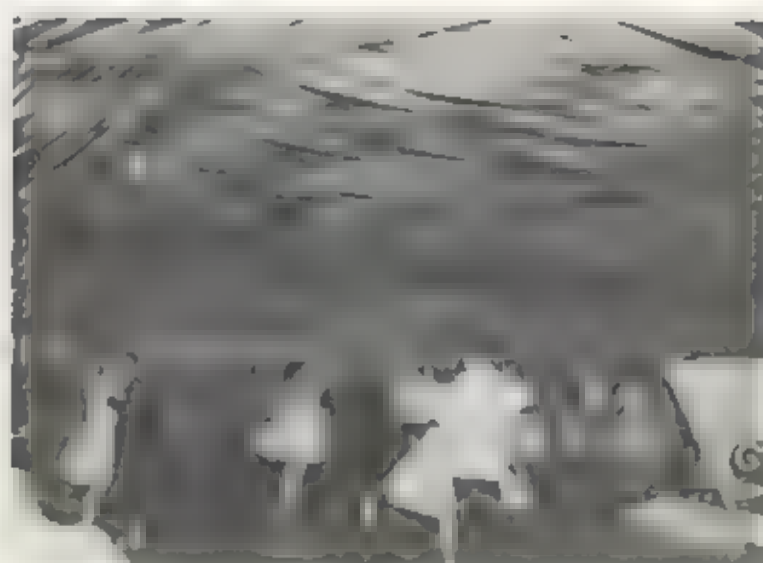

Later we visited Mount Vernon and wondered at how well everything had been preserved

After lunch at the Government Cafeteria, we visited the Supreme Court, Library of Congress, and the Capitol, where everyone was thrilled to see the Senate in session. Then we went to the Washington Monument, where the more energetic climbed to the top and the more prudent took the elevator

"How the West Was Won" was the fabulous movie seen that evening. More of us slept that night than did the night before

Our last day dawned and we were on our way to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the F.B.I. Building; the White House, where we kept our eyes peeled for a Kennedy, but to no avail, and then to the Smithsonian Institute. Here in two hours we tried to cram in what it takes several weeks to take in. At four in the afternoon we left the nation's capitol for our homes. We arrived at the school, tired but filled with marvelous memories. We were a little wiser, very happy and very tired

Prom

After months of frantic planning and three days of scurry in an effort to turn the gym into a wonderland by night, the juniors and Mr. Pope could give a sigh of relief! Even though there were doubts as to whether it would ever be finished, there it was, "Fantasy of the Sea"

In November, the juniors decided on the title of the prom. The decorating committee chose the arrangements of the colors for the center piece, archway, and ceiling

The center piece was an oyster shell with a black pearl; the archway was white with two black seahorses; and the ceiling gave the effect of waves by the different shades of blue

When December rolled around, boxes and boxes of Kleenex were passed out to the juniors. And they transformed them into fluffy tissue flowers. By May, all the juniors were hoping for a Kleenex strike at the factory

May 1, 2, and 3, the gym was decorated. And Friday, with everyone in a dizzy state, the tables were covered and treasure chests and gold coins were placed at each table.

At 12 o'clock Friday, the juniors and seniors left school to get ready for the full evening that lay ahead. While the girls were at the beauty salons and the boys were washing and waxing their cars, the Parent-Teacher Association was preparing a delicious dinner for the banquet.

At six the boys, dressed in sport jackets, and the girls, in formal dresses, started to arrive for dinner. Rev. Cowher, Bob Miller, and Jerry Miller gave speeches at the banquet.

Between the end of the dinner and the beginning of the prom, juniors and seniors left to pick up their dates.

Soon the gym was crowded with excited and happy people. Everyone was far too busy to notice the time, but soon the 63-64 Prom was over.

All that's left now are memories, but they will last forever.

Scholastic Quiz

On November 12, 1963, six seniors at P.T.A. Open House vied in a Junior Scholastic Quiz to be the contestant for the Johnstown Scholastic Quiz on WJAC-TV. These seniors had volunteered about two weeks before. The scoring was ten points for each correct answer and five points off for each wrong answer. Judges for the quiz were: Mrs. Longenecker, English; Mr. Pepe, Music and Art; Mr. Lehmier, Social Studies, and Mr. Rorabaugh, Mathematics. Mr. Wagner, our high school principal, was moderator for the quiz. After a well-played match, Henry Shoenthal was named the contestant and Dale Miller the alternate. On January 26, 1964, Henry Shoenthal got third place at the quiz broadcast on WJAC-TV.

Junior Miss

Nine senior girls presented a contest in the form of an assembly on October 4, 1963. This contest was a part of the Bedford J.C.'s program to select a Junior Miss from Bedford County. Two representatives from Chesnut Ridge were to be chosen to compete against ten girls from the other five high schools in Bedford County. The winners were chosen on poise, talent, and self control.

After a program of varied talents five judges chose Jackie Miller and Rose Feather to represent C.R.H.S. at Bedford on October 19, 1963.

Chorus

The Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Frank Baird, has spent most of its time preparing for the Christmas Concert and Spring Concerts. At the Christmas Concert the Chorus sang many Christmas songs, both as a group and in the form of ensembles. In the Spring Concert, the Chorus is to sing many well-known songs pertaining to that season.

District Chorus was held on January 16-17 and 18, at Westmont High School. Jerry Miller, Bill Deremer, Carl Davis, and Mark Oldham represented CRHS. Carl Davis was chosen to represent Chestnut Ridge at Regional Chorus.

Thus, we see the Chorus has been busy, not only with concerts, but also with special performances.

Kneeling: Rose Feather, Head Majorette Standing Ruth Feather, Bonnie Rininger, Patsy Mock, Sharon Roudabush, Irma Ickes

Majorettes

Classes are held during the spring for all candidates wishing to become majorettes. At the end of the training period, majorettes are chosen from the sophomore, junior, and senior girls who must be members of the band. As soon as they are chosen, hard work comes—practicing routines for football games, parades, and the newly formed Majorette Contest, which they attended this year.

Band

The Christmas Parade at Johnstown was also another adventure for the Band this year. Carl Dively was the queen of Ridge's Band in the parade. District Band was held at Brookville January 31, February 1, 2, which included six of our instrumentalists: Bill Deremer, Ruth Feather, Don Claycomb, Shari Knisley, Carl Davis, and Phyllis Davis.

Junior High Band

This group under the direction of Mr. Art Pepe, spends most of its time practicing and perfecting the technique that they will later use in the Senior Band.

This year when the Senior High Band attended Band Day at Penn State the Junior High Band entertained at the football game creditably. In addition this group performed with the Senior High Band at the game with Berlin.

Thus the Junior High Band is a group of musicians that will someday fill the ranks in the Senior High Band.

The Future Business Leaders of America is an organization for all juniors and seniors enrolled in business education courses

The activities of the Future Business Leaders of America provide an opportunity for business students to prepare better for occupations in business. Members of F B L A learn how to compete honorably with their colleagues on the local, state, and national levels; how to engage in individual and group business enterprises; how to hold office and direct the affairs of the group; and how to work with representatives of other student organizations.

FBLA

FB.L.A. has special ways of making money toward an educational trip usually taken to New York City. Some of these activities are: bake sale, the sale of sweat shirts, and the operation of the school shop. The school shop is open under the management of the business students usually during the three lunch periods of each day. It gives the students of Chestnut Ridge High School the opportunity to buy school supplies in addition to those issued by the school system.

Lion Staff

In the early fall many seniors went to many different business firms, in Bedford County to collect money for advertising ads. The money was to be used in publishing this book. Next the seniors began preparing the book. After, discussing several changes that were to be made, the staff started to layout pages. After four months, and many hours of work, the yearbook was finally finished for your enjoyment of March 1, 1964.

Lion's

The Lion's Tale is the school paper sponsored by Miss McGreevey. The staff of the Lion's Tale consists of the following

Editor .....	Carol Chilcoat
Art Editor .....	Jackie Miller
Exchange Editor .....	Elizabeth McGill
Sports Editor .....	Dale Miller

In addition to the various editors, an excellent staff of expert typists and dependable reporters make it possible for this paper to be published each six-weeks period

Tale

Published every six weeks the paper gives full coverage of all sports events, coming attractions, skating parties, bake sales, dances, class activities, club and class meetings, contests, initiations, holiday attractions, musical programs, class plays, and in general all school activities.

The aim of the Lion's Tale is to give those students who are interested in journalism a chance to write, edit and produce a paper to keep the student body informed of school events and activities.

It requires an extreme amount of determination, skill and hard work to produce as fine a paper as the Lion's Tale. We are proud of our newspaper and the staff that produces it.

Senior Play

Mr. Baird, the director of the senior class play, has chosen for this year's production "Drums of Death". The story takes place on a Southern Plantation, in a house that contains witch doctors, booby traps of any shape or description and flying pins and flies. While in the background the voo-doo drums fill the night air. But even in these dismal surroundings there is a dash of romance and many touches of comedy.

Juniors Present "Out of the Frying Pan"

This comedy written by Francis Swann and directed by Mr. Boerstler was presented on November 8, 1963

It revolves around three boys and three girls living in a cheap New York apartment while they were trying to get into show business

The father of one of the girls, a nosey girlfriend, a confused landlady, a producer who was always cooking, and two policemen, added to the acute lack of money, gave them a lot of trouble

STAGE CREW

Kneeling: Marlin Helsel, Fred Harrison Standing: Bob Way, Jim Vargo, Walter Harr, Roy Heidorn, Barry Davis

Stage Crew

This year, as usual the stage crew has been busy preparing sets for the Junior and Senior Class Plays under the supervision of Mr. Smith. Besides this work of set designing they also take care of the lights and curtains for special assemblies. Any repairs to the stage that must be made are under the direction of this group. Thus we see that the stage crew is very busy whenever an assembly is scheduled.

Seated: Irma Ickes, Sharon Roudabush, Alan Wright, Ruth Feather, Bill Deremer, Rose Feather. Standing: Mr. Pepe, Linda Claycomb, Shari Knisely, Bonnie Rninger, Linda Hamner, Phyllis Davis, Roy Hinson.

The Modern Music Masters Chapter 359 was established in Chestnut Ridge High School in 1957. The requirements for membership in the Tri-M are based on scholarship, character, co-operation, leadership and service. Student must be in tenth, eleventh or twelfth grade, having been enrolled in the local music department in a performing group for at least one semester. They must have maintained for the last semester at least an "88" average in music, with an "85" average in academic subjects.

The two outstanding field trips of the year were a trip to the Syria Mosque on March 21 to hear Van Cliburn; another trip to the Mosque on April 17 to hear the Pittsburgh Symphony.

Football

Ridge opened its 1963 Football season on September 7, by losing a nip and tuck battle to Tussey Mountain 14-12 at the home field.

The following week Ridge traveled to Galitzin and lost 20-7.

Ridge was then overcome by Boswell at Jennerstown 26-0.

Northern Bedford gained a win at the Lion's expense 33-13.

Greenfield Kimmel overwhelmed Ridge at Claysburg 44-6.

Although inside the 20 yard line five times at Everett, the Lions failed to score and the Warriors won 20-0.

Ridge then was downed by a rugged Myersdale eleven 46-0.

In a thrilling defensive battle the Lions lost to Forbes 7-0.

The Ridge varsity closed out the season on a winning note by beating Berlin 13-6 on a 45 yard return of a fumble for a T.D. with 8 seconds to go by Junior Corle.

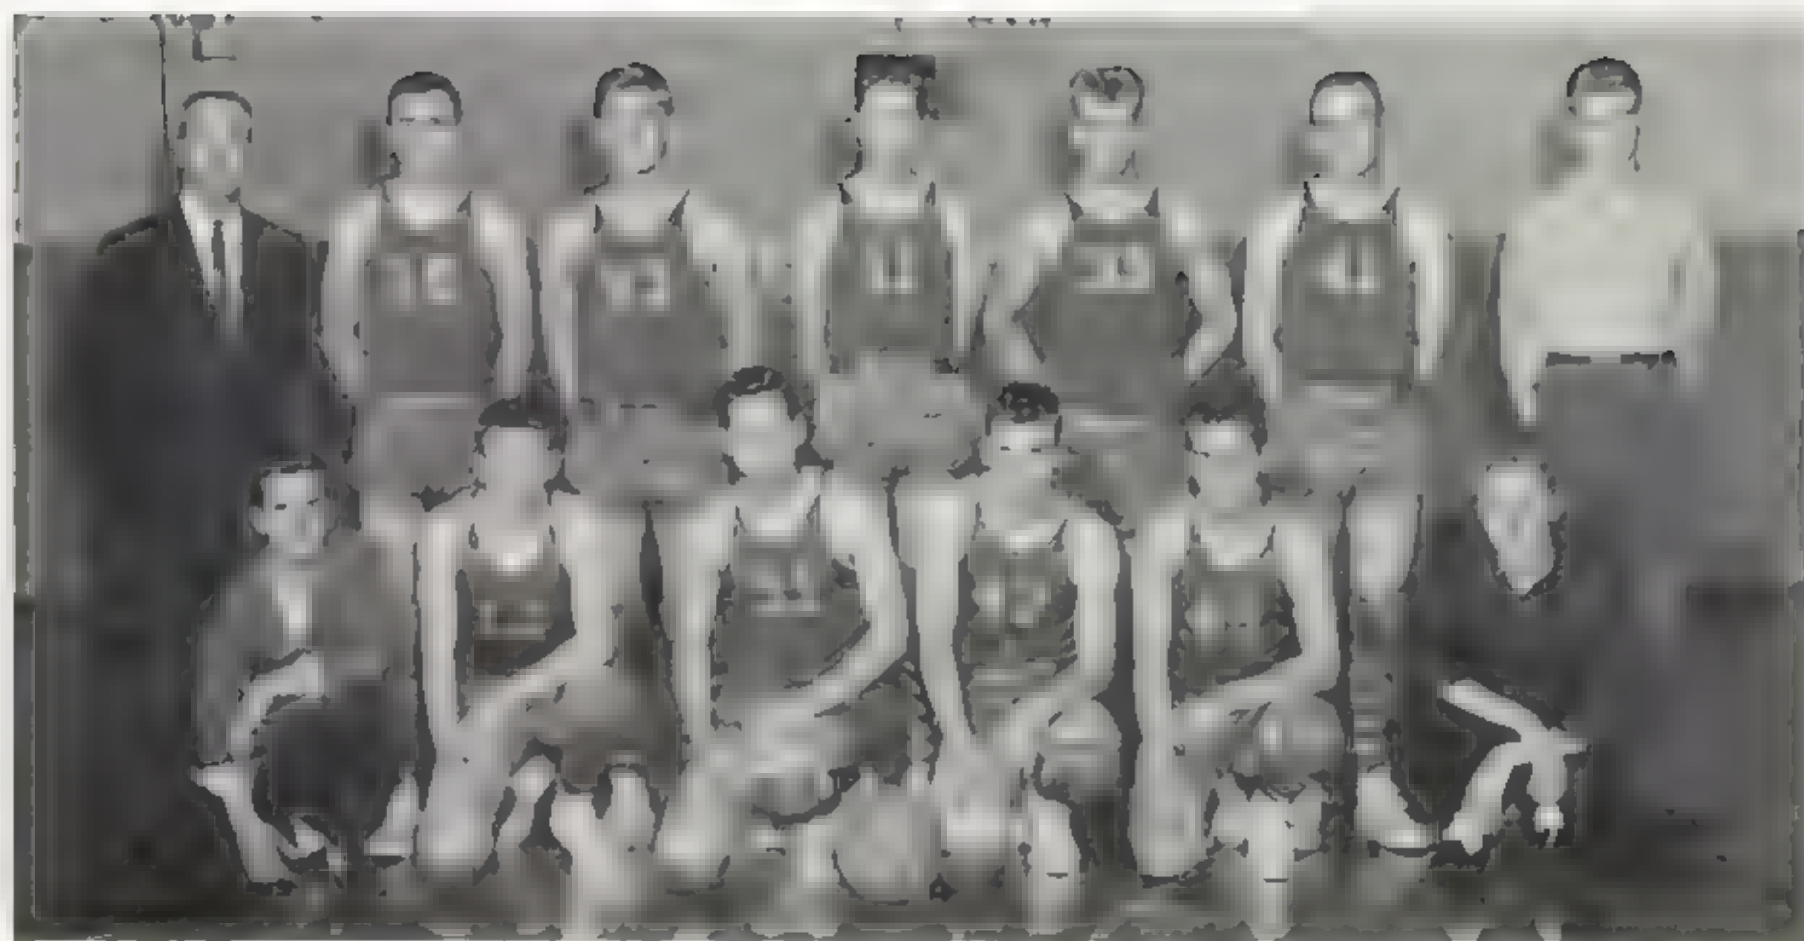

There was one gridder selected to the Bedford County top 22. He was junior guard, Daryl Harclerode.

A total of 7 players received honorable mention. They were: Seniors, Ernie Weicht, fullback; Russell Barefoot, quarterback, and Rick Hahn, guard. Juniors selected were: Junior Corle, end; Stan Burkett, tackle; Don Claycomb, guard; and Larry Lindsey, halfback.

Baseball

The 1963 C. R. H. S. Baseball aggregation, coached by Mr. Caruso and Mr. Bowser, compiled a three wins and nine losses record. The victories were accomplished over N. B. C., Hyndman, and Mercersburg.

The 1964 team will play a ten game county schedule plus a trip to Mercersburg Academy for a game. The team this year will be built around three letter winners: Russ Barefoot and Sam Miller, and two-letter winner Dale Miller. In addition, there are a total of more than fifteen letter winners returning from last year. This means that the team should be well bolstered with experience.

Jr. High Wrestling Team

The Jr. High Wrestling team, in its second year of existence at C.R.H.S. is coached by Mr. Mock. The record is very deceiving due to the fact that there are many fine wrestlers but none are heavy enough to wrestle in the higher weights. In a few years they should come through with a record to match that of the varsity. Captains are Marlin Cathers and Kerry Ellis.

Varsity Cheerleaders

The Varsity Cheerleaders are a group of six girls who are chosen at the end of the school year for the next one. During the summer they practice and make up cheers

The Cheerleaders lead the spectators in encouraging the Ridge team at all the sporting events, home and away, during the school year

These girls attend the Cheerleading Contest at the War Memorial in Johnstown. They also attend the Christmas Wrestling Tournament and the District V Wrestling Tournament

Seniors

L. to R. Susie Otto, Kay Ickes (captain), Helen Glessner, Carol Mock, Fay Ickes (co-captain)

Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders

The J. V. Cheerleaders are chosen at the end of each school year for the following one

After practicing all through the summer, they come back to cheer their football team to victory. Football is no more than over when they start practicing their basketball cheers. They fill the winter months cheering for basketball, and at the end of the year they try-out for the Varsity Squad

Thus, we see that they are very busy during the year. The fun and excitement reaches a climax if they are chosen for the Varsity Squad

Noomi Ackerman, Linda Manges (Co-captain), Karen Crist (Captain), Kothy Wingard, Betty Diehl, Donna Carle, Kay Mickle, Pat Dively

Jr. High Cheerleaders

The Junior High Cheerleaders are chosen in October. Eight cheerleaders are picked, and they cheer for all home Jr. High basketball games.

After participating in Jr. High, they are able to try-out for J.V.

Although this group is not as busy as the Varsity and J.V., they get excellent training for their future years as cheerleaders.
